

Amusements.

M. L. E. EMMA WELLISS. THE LADY ORGANIST, Vocal and Instrumental Concert. At Nibley's Saloon, on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 21. Mrs. WELLIS will be assisted by M. BRAINARD, Soprano, Sig. MARIE B. BARBIER, E. MOLLENHAUER, Violinist, H. C. TIMM, Pianist. N. B.—Full particulars in Thursday's paper.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—PICCOLOMINI. We make our FIRST APPEARANCE ON WEDNESDAY, Oct. 20. The Opera selected for the debut of Miss Piccolomini will be LA TRAVIATA.

For the production of which the most extensive preparations have been made.

The cast comprises:

Mrs. PICCOLOMINI.

Sig. STEFANI (his first appearance in that opera).

Sig. FLORENZA (also his first appearance in America).

THE GRAND AND IMPOSING CHORUS.

Will contain ONE HUNDRED SINGERS.

Including sixteen pupils of the grammar and Singing School of the Academy of Music, who have established since the last that they have now met with the most gratifying success, upward of three hundred pupils having availed themselves of the facilities placed within their reach.

THE ORCHESTRA.

Will be the largest and most perfect ever united for an operatic performance, numbering upward of SIXTY PROFESSORS.

It will be under the direction of:

Sig. MUZIO,

who will make, on this occasion, his first appearance in America.

During the ball scene the adored deuseuse,

Sig. SOTO,

will make her first appearance since her return from South America. She will be assisted by a corps de ballet of TWENTY YOUTHFUL DANCERS.

THE MUSIC STAFF.

A magnificient new scene has been expressly painted for the first act, and many new and costly properties, chandeliers, &c., have been expressly procured for this occasion.

Admission $1.

Reserved seats, 50 cents.

Family circle, 10 cents; Amphitheater, 20 cents.

Principe boxes, 25 cents; private boxes, 50 cents.

New grand boxes (for four persons), 10.

THE FREE LIST RIGIDLY SUSPENDED

Throughout the whole season.

ORDER OF THE SALE.

The sale of seats for the first night of Miss Piccolomini will commence precisely at 9 a.m.

On MONDAY, Oct. 18.

At the Academy of Music, Broadway, No. 701 Broadway; and at the Hall of the New York Society, No. 20 Wall-st., corner Broad-st.

The sale for the second night commences on Tuesday, and for the third night on Wednesday.

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST.

THE LADY OF THE OPERA COMPANY.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER, Broadway.

Mr. STRAKOSCH has the honor to announce that

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST,

the greatest living American prima donna, will make her first appearance on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 19.

At Bellini's Grand Opera.

THE PURITAN.

With Signed BRAHMIN, AMODIO and MARCEL JUNCA, in

the principal parts.

CONDUCTORS, M. STRAKOSCH, SIG. NICOLAO,

PRICES OF ADMISSION.

Balcony, Parterre and Dress Circle (including reserved seats), $1. Family Circle, 80 cents; 25 cents; Private Boxes, from $2 to $12.

The Box Office will be opened daily, at 8 o'clock.

At the Hall scene the adored deuseuse,

Sig. SOTO,

will make her first appearance since her return from South America. She will be assisted by a corps de ballet of

TWENTY YOUTHFUL DANCERS.

THE MUSIC STAFF.

A magnificient new scene has been expressly painted for the first act, and many new and costly properties, chandeliers, &c., have been expressly procured for this occasion.

Admission $1.

Reserved seats, 50 cents.

Family circle, 10 cents; Amphitheater, 20 cents.

Principe boxes, 25 cents; private boxes, 50 cents.

New grand boxes (for four persons), 10.

THE FREE LIST RIGIDLY SUSPENDED

Throughout the whole season.

ORDER OF THE SALE.

The sale of seats for the first night of Miss Piccolomini will commence precisely at 9 a.m.

On MONDAY, Oct. 18.

At the Academy of Music, Broadway, No. 701 Broadway; and at the Hall of the New York Society, No. 20 Wall-st., corner Broad-st.

The sale for the second night commences on Tuesday, and for the third night on Wednesday.

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST.

THE LADY OF THE OPERA COMPANY.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER, Broadway.

Mr. STRAKOSCH has the honor to announce that

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST,

the greatest living American prima donna, will make her first appearance on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 19.

At Bellini's Grand Opera.

THE PURITAN.

With Signed BRAHMIN, AMODIO and MARCEL JUNCA, in

the principal parts.

CONDUCTORS, M. STRAKOSCH, SIG. NICOLAO,

PRICES OF ADMISSION.

Balcony, Parterre and Dress Circle (including reserved seats), $1. Family Circle, 80 cents; 25 cents; Private Boxes, from $2 to $12.

The Box Office will be opened daily, at 8 o'clock.

At the Hall scene the adored deuseuse,

Sig. SOTO,

will make her first appearance since her return from South America. She will be assisted by a corps de ballet of

TWENTY YOUTHFUL DANCERS.

THE MUSIC STAFF.

A magnificient new scene has been expressly painted for the first act, and many new and costly properties, chandeliers, &c., have been expressly procured for this occasion.

Admission $1.

Reserved seats, 50 cents.

Family circle, 10 cents; Amphitheater, 20 cents.

Principe boxes, 25 cents.

New grand boxes (for four persons), 10.

THE FREE LIST RIGIDLY SUSPENDED

Throughout the whole season.

ORDER OF THE SALE.

The sale of seats for the first night of Miss Piccolomini will commence precisely at 9 a.m.

On MONDAY, Oct. 18.

At the Academy of Music, Broadway, No. 701 Broadway; and at the Hall of the New York Society, No. 20 Wall-st., corner Broad-st.

The sale for the second night commences on Tuesday, and for the third night on Wednesday.

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST.

THE LADY OF THE OPERA COMPANY.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER, Broadway.

Mr. STRAKOSCH has the honor to announce that

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST,

the greatest living American prima donna, will make her first appearance on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 19.

At Bellini's Grand Opera.

THE PURITAN.

With Signed BRAHMIN, AMODIO and MARCEL JUNCA, in

the principal parts.

CONDUCTORS, M. STRAKOSCH, SIG. NICOLAO,

PRICES OF ADMISSION.

Balcony, Parterre and Dress Circle (including reserved seats), $1. Family Circle, 80 cents; 25 cents; Private Boxes, from $2 to $12.

The Box Office will be opened daily, at 8 o'clock.

At the Hall scene the adored deuseuse,

Sig. SOTO,

will make her first appearance since her return from South America. She will be assisted by a corps de ballet of

TWENTY YOUTHFUL DANCERS.

THE MUSIC STAFF.

A magnificient new scene has been expressly painted for the first act, and many new and costly properties, chandeliers, &c., have been expressly procured for this occasion.

Admission $1.

Reserved seats, 50 cents.

Family circle, 10 cents; Amphitheater, 20 cents.

Principe boxes, 25 cents.

New grand boxes (for four persons), 10.

THE FREE LIST RIGIDLY SUSPENDED

Throughout the whole season.

ORDER OF THE SALE.

The sale of seats for the first night of Miss Piccolomini will commence precisely at 9 a.m.

On MONDAY, Oct. 18.

At the Academy of Music, Broadway, No. 701 Broadway; and at the Hall of the New York Society, No. 20 Wall-st., corner Broad-st.

The sale for the second night commences on Tuesday, and for the third night on Wednesday.

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST.

THE LADY OF THE OPERA COMPANY.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER, Broadway.

Mr. STRAKOSCH has the honor to announce that

MADAME CORA DE WILHORST,

the greatest living American prima donna, will make her first appearance on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 19.

At Bellini's Grand Opera.

THE PURITAN.

With Signed BRAHMIN, AMODIO and MARCEL JUNCA, in

the principal parts.

CONDUCTORS, M. STRAKOSCH, SIG. NICOLAO,

PRICES OF ADMISSION.

Balcony, Parterre and Dress Circle (including reserved seats), $1. Family Circle, 80 cents; 25 cents; Private Boxes, from $2 to $12.

The Box Office will be opened daily, at 8 o'clock.

At the Hall scene the adored deuseuse,

Sig. SOTO,

will make her first appearance since her return from South America. She will be assisted by a corps de ballet of

TWENTY YOUTHFUL DANCERS.

THE MUSIC STAFF.

A magnificient new scene has been expressly painted for the first act, and many new and costly properties, chandeliers, &c., have been expressly procured for this occasion.

Admission $1.

Reserved seats, 50 cents.

Family circle, 10 cents; Amphitheater, 20 cents.

Principe boxes, 25 cents.

New grand boxes (for four persons), 10.

THE FREE LIST RIGIDLY SUSPENDED

Throughout the whole season.

ORDER OF THE SALE.

The sale of seats for the first night of Miss Piccolomini will commence precisely at 9 a.m.

On MONDAY, Oct. 18.

At the Academy of Music, Broadway, No. 701 Broadway; and at the Hall of the New York Society, No. 20 Wall-st., corner Broad-st.

The sale for the second night commences on